Song (up and under): "Good Old Days" by Macklemore

Mr. Holabird: One of the last things I want to share with you, from the old-old days, was one of my fondest memories was a girl in 4th grade -- who, unfortunately was taken by cancer before she could finish her freshman year in college -- came to me in 4th grade, and she had this whole piece of paper and on it it said, "The school is the rainbow to my future." And I thought, "Gee whiz, I never heard anything like that from anybody." And what more could a school ask than to be the rainbow to your future? (Applause) And the school has been a rainbow to my career and I will remember it always, and thank all of you for making Los Encinos my rainbow.

Macklemore (VO): Some day these will be the good old days. All the love you won't forget, and all these reckless nights you won't regret. Some day soon your whole life's gonna change. You'll miss the magic of these good old days.

Mrs. Reinfeld (off-screen): Thank you so much for coming. From the bottom of my heart, we're so glad to celebrate this time with you.
